Personal Statement

My name is Corbin Johns and I have recently completed Web Development from edX Bootcamp through Michigan State University. I am looking for a position to gain further knowledge on web development and security. Through the courses I have completed I have learned the basic knowledge of HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, Node, and Express. I believe that I would be a benefit to your team as I am a quick learner and enjoy challenging myself with new responsibilities and tasks. I would like to express gratitude for your time and consideration.
